JAMMY: Cultural bonanza for the first outgoing student batch of GDC Marh was organised by the Students Welfare Committee, GDC Marh on Thursday.

The programme started with the lighting of the lamp, followed by the release of 4th issue of the college newsletter 'The Sage' by Principal Prof. Aekta Gupta.

Principal congratulated the organisers and the students for the arrangement. She wished the students a very bright, prosperous future ahead and stressed that the main aim of this institution is to make students erudite, patriotic, law abiding, ceaselessly seeking excellence that will enable them to stand in good stead in every situation.

Students of 4th Semester bid adieu to the first outgoing batch of the college and performed various cultural activities.

Madhvan Sharma and Janvi Sharma were adjudged Mr GDC Marh and Ms GDC Marh, respectively. Komal Sharma was declared as runners-up among girls, while Harsh Anand was selected as runners-up among boys.

Shivani Saini was named as Miss Talented and Mikhail Kumar was Mr Talented. The event was coordinated by the Convenor and Members of Student Welfare Committee, Cultural Committee, Discipline Committee and concluded amid much fanfare and rejoicings.
